Banned: The Modern Segregation of Undocumented Students in GA
Sponsored by Young Democratic Socialists of America at Georgia Tech

Freedom University is an underground freedom school for undocumented students in Atlanta and provides free college-level classes, college applications and scholarship assistance, and social movement leadership training to undocumented students banned from equal access to public universities in Georgia.

In this presentation and community dialogue, Freedom University faculty, staff, and students will share their personal stories of what it is like to teach and learn in the one true sanctuary campus in the world where every student is undocumented, and lead a conversation on how all of us can work together to end modern segregation in the University System of Georgia and advance the human right to education.

Did I Say That? Exploring Microaggressions and Micro-triggers
Sponsored by Office of Student Diversity Programs

This event fulfills a requirement of the GOLD Route. To learn more about the GOLD Route, click here.

During this interactive workshop, participants will become more aware of the significant impact their words and actions (as well the “little things” they intentionally or unintentionally do) have on other people. In addition, participants will begin to deal with micro-inequities and micro-triggers in a forum where they are safely brought to the forefront for discussion, and develop skills and strategies to send constructive messages and respond more effectively to negative messaging that can undermine productivity.
Trans Day of Remembrance: Jesse Pratt López
Sponsored by Pride Alliance

The Transgender Day of Remembrance (TDOR) is observed November 20 as a day to memorialize those who have been murdered as a result of transphobia. This year, Pride Alliance is partnering with the Office of International Education for their series of events in International Education Week and the LGBTQIA Resource Center. We'll host Atlanta-based photographer, activist, and organizer Jesse Pratt Lopéz as a keynote speaker. Please RSVP for this event: https://lgbtqia.gatech.edu/transgender-day-remembrance

------

Y'all means all: this is an event for LGBTQIA+ folks and their allies. Please email pride@gatech.edu if we can provide any accommodations to make this event more accessible or if you have any questions.
