On behalf of the Center for Student Engagement and the Division of Student Life, we wish a warm welcome to our new students and a hearty welcome home to those returning this fall! The Weekly Digest is a regular resource for students and the campus community to learn more about events, programs, and opportunities hosted by registered student organizations, campus departments, and community service partners. If you're interested in including your event in the next Weekly Digest, learn more about submission criteria here.

Filmmakers @ GT Kick Off Info Session
Sponsored by Filmmakers @ GT

Tired of tour guides telling you that the internship was filmed on campus? Well, now you can make films on campus (and off campus) and brag about it too!!
Filmmakers @ GT is a student-run organization that focuses on creating original short films that are completely student-lead. You can participate in all parts of the filmmaking process, from writing, directing, shooting, producing, and editing. No prior experience required! We have our exclusive equipment and software that all club members have access to and provide a budget for production (we'll get more into this in the info sessions). We also plan to submit films to film festivals, attend film festivals, and go to free advanced movie screenings. Come find out more about our organization at one of our info sessions!
